37th and 38th batches of Technician Training Workshop on "Good Practices in Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning" at Kishoreganj during 8-11 August 2016

Introduction:

37th and 38th batches of technician training workshop on "Good Service Practices in Refrigeration and Air-conditioning" was held during 8-11 August 2016 at Kishoreganj under "HCFC Phase-out Management Plan (Stage-I)-UNEP Component" project of the Department of Environment. The workshop was organized by the project with the support from Ozone Cell, Department of Environment under the overall guidance from the Director General of the Department of Environment. The training workshop was divided into two batches. First batch consisting of 55 technicians were trained during 8-9 August 2016. Second batch consisting of 55 technicians were trained during 10-11 August 2016. All the participants were from Kishoreganj ditricts and some participants were from Maymensing, Narsingdi and Netrokona districts.

Inaugural Session of the 37th Batch

The inaugural session of the "Good Service Practices in Refrigeration and Airconditioning Workshop" was held on 8th Augut 2016 at 10.30 am at Hotel Castle

Mr. Nasiruddin Bhuiyan, President, Kishoreganj Refrigeration Malik Samity is delivering his speech at the Inaugural Session of the training workshop.

Salam, Kihoreganj. Satvendra Dr. Kumar Purkayastha, Senior Officer, INS Project (Phase-VII), Department Environment, Mr. Nasiruddin Bhuiyan, President, Kishoregani Refrigeration Malik Samity, Mr. Md. Mamunul Chief Islam, Instructor and Vice

Pricipal, Kishoreganj Polytechnic Institute were present at the inaugural session. The session began with the recitation from the holy Qur'an. Hon'ble guests of the inaugural session of the workshop delivered their speeches on the importance of the RAC Technician Training Programme.

Technical Session of the 37th Batch

Technical Session of the Workshop

The technical session began with the presentation made by Dr. Satyendra Kumar Purkayastha, Senior Officer, INS Project (Phase-VII), DoE. The presentation was made on ozone layer and its depletion, its consequences. The role of refrigeration and air-conditioning servicing technicians to protect the ozone layer was discussed. Two days long technical session was conducted according to the training module by the trainers Mr. Md. Asaduzzaman. Mr. Md. Mamunul Islam, and Mr. Abu Sayeed Babul respectively. During the technical session, refrigerant management, good service practices in installation, maintenance and servicing, recovery and recycling method, safety issues, alternative technology, tools and equipments were discussed by the trainers. The training programme was interactive supported by multimedia, audio visual presentation along with question and answering session. Some hands on training on good service practices were also demonstrated.

Mr. Md. Asaduzzaman, Vice President, BRAMA is delivering his speech at the Inaugural Session of the 38th Batch

Inaugural Session of the 38th Batch

The second inaugural session of the "Good Service Practices in Refrigeration and Airconditioning Workshop" was held on 10 August 2016 at 9.30 am at Hotel Castle Salam, Kishoregani. Mr. Shaikh Obaidullah Al Mahmood, Research Officer, Ozone Cell, Department of Environment, Mr.

Md. Asaduzzaman, Vice President, Bangladesh Refrigeration and Airconditioning Merchant Association, and Mr. Nasiruddin Bhuiyan, President, Kishoregani Refrigeration Malik Samity were present at the inaugural session.

The session began with the recitation from the holy Qur'an. Hon'ble guests of the inaugural session of the workshop delivered their speeches on the importance of the RAC Technician Training.

Technical Session of the 38th Batch

The technical session began with the presentation made by Mr. Shaikh Obaidullah Al Mahmood, Research Officer, INS Project (Phase-VII), DoE. The presentation was made on ozone layer and its depletion, its consequences. The role of refrigeration and air-conditioning servicing technicians to protect the ozone layer was discussed. Two days long technical session was conducted by the trainers Mr. Md. Asaduzzaman and Mr. Abu Sayeed Babul respectively according to the training module. During the technical session refrigerant management, good service practices in installation, maintenance and servicing, recovery and recycling method, safety issues, alternative technology, tools and equipments were discussed by the trainers. The training programme was interactive supported by multimedia, audio visual presentation along with question and answering session. Some hands on training on good service practices were also demonstrated.

Closing Session

The closing session of the four day long two batches of training workshop was held on 11th August 2016 at Hotel Castle Salam, Kishoreganj. Mr. Quazi Sarwar Imtiaz Hashmi, Additional Director General, Department of Environment and Project Director, HCFC Phase-out Management Plan (Stage-I) – UNEP Component Project graced the occasion as Chief Guest. Among other guests DOE

Mr. Quazi Sarwar Imtiaz Hashmi, Additional Director General, Department of Environment is delivering his speech at the Concluding Session of the training workshop.

Participants of the workshop officials, representatives from Kishoreganj Refrigeration Malik Samity were present.

The closing session began with the recitation from the holy Qur'an. Hon'ble Guests of the closing session delivered their speeches before the participants of the workshop. Hon'ble Chief Guest distributed the certificates at the end of the closing session.

Participants are awarded with the Certificates

Group Photograph